Dear Rob:

Thanks so much for your participation as a Panelist in our January 8th CSCMP Atlanta Roundtable program entitled "China Trade Implications". Your event drew an impressive crowd (especially given the competition from the BCS game) and we have received rave reviews from everyone who heard you speak. In addition to being timely, your presentation truly fit our goal of educating our members on the latest developments in Supply Chain Management, and getting people excited about global opportunities and developments in our industry.

I have completed the "CSCMP Event Activity Report" on-line, in which I recommended you as a speaker to other CSCMP Roundtables. You will soon be receiving a thank-you letter and a CSCMP gift, directly from CSCMP global headquarters in Lombard, Illinois as a small token of our appreciation. Meanwhile, please accept my personal thanks on behalf of the CSCMP Atlanta Roundtable for your valuable participation and continued support of our organization.

Regards,
