LUMBER FOR THE CARIBBEAN

Jacksonville, FL – February 2005: Amware Logistics recently welcomed a well renowned, 50 year-old lumber exporting company to our Jacksonville public warehouse facility. Recent expansion into the Caribbean Islands has brought the customers' products to Florida for consolidation and staging prior to bulk-exportation.

This customers' products will be arriving in Florida from all over the Southeastern United States. With over 125 various SKU's on-hand, Amware will be providing bundling and drayage to the Jacksonville Port for the products' overseas movements. According to them, "Our core philosophy is to develop and maintain long-term relationships based on honesty, open communication, and loyalty". That is what has brought them to work with Amware, and that is why we will forge together for many years to come.
