AMWARE SHINES AS OUR CUSTOMERS WATCH & MARVEL

Atlanta, GA – October 2003: Today we bring to you a new customer at Amware's Atlanta facility; product first arrived on our docks this past Tuesday. The customer is an importer of hand crafted wood lawn furniture from Honduras.

Our customer's primary client is a consumer goods retail chain headquartered in the Atlanta area. Currently, the product is shipped to two retail locations. Volume expectations are set at one container load of product per month with an estimated increase to as often as one container per week over the next 12-18 months.

Special recognition goes out to Libby Montgomery and Richard Veal for their "above and beyond" customer service efforts demonstrated in handling this container. The pressure was on as our principle customers were present during the arrival and initial handling of this first container. The craftsmanship of each Amware associate and unparalleled attention to detailed processes by everyone involved assured timely unloading of the container and flawless product handling; our customer was very encouraged by this representation and is now more-than-comfortable partnering with Amware for future deliveries. In his words, “now that I have seen your operation, I am excited and relieved to let [Amware] handle this aspect of my business so I can concentrate on increasing my customer base”.
